

Before making a claim, workers need to:

- notify employers about injuries
- see a doctor and get a workers' compensation medical certificate.

Make a claim as soon as possible. We will then decide the claim based on workers' compensation legislation and advise you of the outcome.

Section F: Privacy notice and statements

Privacy

WorkCover Queensland (WorkCover) is collecting your personal information in accordance with the Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 2003 in order to assess your entitlement to compensation and manage your rehabilitation and return to work.

Some of this information may be given to your employer, the Workers' Compensation Regulator and service providers for the purpose of payments, treatment, rehabilitation and return to work.

Your information will not be given to any other person unless you have given your consent, or we are authorised or required by law. For more information on privacy, visit our website at www.workcoverqld.com.au or call us on 1300 362 128.

Workers statement

I acknowledge that it is an offence against the Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 2003 to make a statement that is false or misleading. The information I have provided is true and not misleading.

I agree to advise WorkCover Queensland if my circumstances change or if I become aware of any matter that would make the above information false or misleading. I will advise WorkCover Queensland if I undertake any employment (paid or unpaid), including self-employment, during my claim.

I authorise any doctor, health authority, allied health provider, rehabilitation provider, or other insurer to disclose to WorkCover Queensland and its agents any information about my medical history relevant to this claim.

I consent to WorkCover Queensland communicating with all parties, including injured workers, employers, and medical and allied health providers by email.

I have read and understand the privacy notice.

What's next

We will SMS the injured worker their claim number when we receive the claim (if a mobile number is provided).

After you lodge your claim, we have 20 business days to make a decision on the claim, but we decide most claims within five days.

If the claim is accepted, it may be managed by one of our customer service centres to assist with return to work. If the claim is for time off work, the injured worker will be required to complete a Tax file number declaration and send it to us.

If you have any questions about your claim or workers' compensation in Queensland, call us on 1300 362 128 or visit our website at www.workcoverqld.com.au.
