Hi Julie,

I just wanted to confirm that your concerns regarding the delay to the demolition of your property have been passed on to Suncorp and we have been advised by them that they will be providing instruction when their investigations team release the claim.

Also just following up regarding the revised plans - can you please confirm that you are happy with the plans and if so we will have our quote for the rebuild works with Suncorp within 20 calendar days.

We have had notice that the neighbours are starting to complain about the demolition of the cottage not having taken place as yet. The holiday season has begun and apparently the the "town gossip mongers " in their usual fashion are complaining about Rats, the lawn getting out of hand, and the site being an eyesaw and health hazard. The folks can be relentless and as this is dragging on for so long now we are incline to agree frankly.

Can we please at least get this part completed ASAP.

Kind regards

Julie Kraemer
