OBSERVER COMMENTS

Christian is very aware of his skill-set and potential and is determined to expand them by continual learning and training. He has identified the need for a QBCC site supervisor license outside of the mining industry and has also upgraded his trailer to suit the needs of his employer and clients. I can attest to his healthy work-life balance as he has extensive experience with fatigue management and prioritises sleep, exercise & stress levels in order to keep in check and sustain good health & wellness. He has discussed with me his desire for further education to progress in his chosen career, which has resulted in his commencement of the Diploma of project management. He has adapted quickly to changing workplaces and teams, understands the value of programs and technology and also the need to teach and encourage other team members along the way.

OBSERVER COMMENTS

Through our various conversations regarding projects, Christian either supervises or is part of the project management team. I have been able to determine Christian has a sound capability of ^{allocating} personnel requirements within a project team. Using simulated resumes and job applications, he has proved to be competent in human resource management. Having first-hand experience working with him as a supervisor I am confident in his ability to lead a project team.

OBSERVER COMMENTS

Christian used a simulated project management plan (Attached) which he has been apart of, to communicate all necessary examples of Stakeholder engagement.

Christian Identified relevant Stakeholders & explained how Stakeholders would be kept up to date with relevant project information. Weekly email updates & face to face project meetings give Christian the opportunity to maintain an agreed upon consistent dialogue.

After project meetings he explained the process of ~~distributing~~ distributing stakeholder needs to project team. All safety messages & construction updates will be distributed through tool box meetings & take time talks.
