Oh my goodness – sorry can we please change this one as well!! Needs to include ‘sewer’ in

Hi Natasha,

Thank you for the reminder!

Yes please – we would like to book this in for next week's run. Can we just change the construction start date to 19 April 2021?

I'll flick you a separate email regarding our other project up there as we would like to run that notice next week as well. Thanks!

That's ok – I'll need to get the project manager to sign off on the proof and he is out at the moment so we will just put it in the next print run. We may push out that start date as well so I just need to confirm first. Will come back to you. Thanks Natasha!
